

HESS SURPRISED BY APPOINTMENT

Hamilton Township Man Did not Know He was Considered for Highway Superintendent.

EFFICIENCY IS RECOGNIZED

Henry Price Retires from Office After Two Years of Untiring and Faithful Work.

That Frank Hess, of Hamilton township who was appointed Monday afternoon by the county commissioners as county highway superintendent will be a capable and efficient head for that important department of the county government, is the consensus of opinion of those who have taken an interest in the good roads movement. He succeeds Henry Price who has done excellent work in that office for the past two years.

The appointment came to Mr. Hess as a surprise and announcement of the decision of the commissioners was read with great interest in all parts of the county. Monday morning William Isaacs called at Mr. Hess' home near Cortland, and suggested that they go to Brownstown to see what action the commissioners would take. Mr. Hess refused to go saying that he was not an applicant for the position and had given the appointment only casual attention. He did not file his application for the place but was chosen after the commissioners were unable to agree among themselves regarding the appointment. It is understood that four ballots were taken. Mr. Price, George Stahl, Ezra Scott and John W. Fountain were applicants for the place and it is said that during the balloting each received one vote. The result of the ballots was not made public.

Mr. Hess is by no means inexperienced in road building. In fact, he is regarded as one of the best informed men concerning road work in the county. For several years he had charge of the highways in Hamilton township and it is said that the splendid condition of the roads there is due to him. He has given considerable study to the question and is a good roads advocate.

Mr. Hess could not be reached by telephone today and it is not known what his definite policy will be. Those who are close to him say that the public need not worry about the condition of the roads as he will give them the best treatment and attention possible and will see that full value is received for every dollar that is expended for gravel and other material. He takes charge of the office at once.

Mr. Price leaves the highway department after two years of service. He was the first road superintendent ever appointed under the present law and during his administration the highways have shown a great improvement. When he went into the office the department owned practically no tools or other equipment. From time to time he has purchased drags and other tools until now it has a working equipment. He has given his entire attention to the department. He has visited all parts of the county to see that his assistant superintendents have carried out his instructions and that the work was advancing as he expected. When he was not busy on the roads he gave his time to office work and his records and books are in a most commendable condition. His recent report showing just how each dollar was expended in the various districts was sufficient to show the care and accuracy of his bookkeeping system. Mr. Price has given the work his faithful and conscientious attention.

The first big task confronting the

COUNTY PHYSICIAN

Dr. Fred Heller, of Brownstown Appointed by Commissioners.

Another appointment made by the county commissioners in regular session Monday was that of county physician for a term of one year. Dr. Fred Heller, of Brownstown, was selected to succeed Dr. P. A. Zaring, also of Brownstown. They were the only applicants for the place.

1915 STATEMENT FOR CITY LIBRARY

Shows That Total Circulation During the Last Twelve Months Was 26,559.

GAIN OF 4,557 OVER 1914

Catalogue Shows 5,538 Books on the Shelves at Beginning of This Year—Financial Report.

That the Seymour public library had a gain of 4,557 in circulation in 1915 over the year previous, is stated in the annual report which was completed today by the secretary of the board. The circulation last year was 26,559 and in 1914 was 22,002. The report means that on an average more than three books were taken from the shelves by every man, woman and child in the city during the last year. The report is significant in that it shows the increasing popularity of the public institution.

Beginning this year the library has 5,538 books listed in the catalogue. It has a total of 1,935 patrons.

The cost of maintaining the library last year was $2,189.17, and the new year was started with a balance of $10.99. During the year $1,871.21

MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION PLANS ANNUAL MEETING

Committees Appointed to Plan for Luncheon and for Nomination of Officers for Coming Year.

The monthly meeting of the Retail Merchants Association was held Monday evening at the office of the Secretary, Harry M. Miller. Various matters pertaining to the business interests of the merchants were discussed. Among these was the question of affiliating as the retailers' department of the newly organized commercial club. No action was taken but the plans will be presented for decision at the next monthly meeting the first Monday in February. Plans were made for a big event next month which will be the annual meeting of the Association and election of officers. A luncheon will probably be served and a committee was appointed to secure a room and arrange the menu. The committee is N. Kaufman, Chas. Moore, Fred Able and Lynn Bollinger.

For the election of officers a committee was appointed to nominate two candidates for each office. These names are to be presented at the annual meeting and the members will vote for their choice. Other nominations may be made at that time also by any member of the Association. The nominating committee is Jay C. Smith, H. L. Bridges, W. F. Bush.

NINE CARS DERAILED IN ACCIDENT ON THE BRANCH

Track Blockaded for Several Hours and Monon Trains Were Detoured Through This City.

Because of an accident on the Louisville Branch of the B. & O. Southwestern, between Louisville and North Vernon, two Big Four trains were derailed over the main line of the B. & O. and the Pennsylvania Lines today.

The wreck occurred at Paris when a freight car gave down. Nine other cars were derailed and a considerable stretch of the track was torn up. The wrecking crew was called about 2:30 o'clock this morning and the track was reopened at 9:40 o'clock. The Big Four trains from North Vernon to Louisville use the branch road and it was necessary to detour one eastbound and one westbound train today.

Popularity of Farmers' Club Shown by Report

Miss Florence Love, matron of the Farmers' Club, has kept a record of all visitors during the past year and the report is proof of the growing popularity of that unique institution. The statement shows that during the month of December a total of 1,091 persons took advantage of the conveniences of the Club and during the last twelve months 7,240 visitors were registered.

Few local people realize the general use that is made of the building by the farmers and their families. As a rule, Saturday is the most popular day at the institution and many families bring their dinners with them and make use of the well lighted, convenience dining room. This department is kept in the most sanitary manner and affords an ideal place for a family to meet at the lunch hour.

The Farmers' Club is the central meeting place for friends who are entitled to membership. Instead of roaming the streets as was the custom before the Club was erected, farmers and their families now have a mutual understanding that they will meet in the rest room of the handsome building where they are sheltered from the cold wind or driving rain of the winter months. There they find big, comfortable chairs with interesting magazines and the time passes only too quickly while they are waiting for other members of the family to complete their buying.

The total membership of the Club is approximately one thousand active members. This means about three or four thousand additional associate members as the families of the farmers are equally entitled to the accommodations. During the last half of 1915 scores of new members were enrolled and it is expected that the register will show many additional names before 1916 has advanced far. Membership is free and there is no cost whatever attached to the use of the building. The farmers of this vicinity are privileged to use a building the like of which will not be found anywhere in the United States. They have realized that it has become a part of their visits to Seymour and scores of families would not think of coming to their trading center without making the club their headquarters.

JOSEPH E. MCKINNEY DIES IN TEXARKANA, TEXAS

Former City Clerk and For Many Years Resident of This City, Passes Away Monday.

Joseph E. McKinney, for many years a resident of this city, died Monday afternoon at his home in Texarkana, Tex., after a long illness with bladder trouble. The telegram announcing his death was received by Mayor John A. Ross. It followed closely upon the first message which said that he was in a critical condition and not expected to recover.

Mr. McKinney was about sixty-four years of age. He was born in Lebanon, O., and came to Seymour when a young man. For twenty-five years of his residence here he was engaged as a clerk and for twenty years was employed in the J. B. Morrison dry goods store where Able's store is now located. After giving up employment as a clerk he was elected city clerk and served several years in that office. Later he engaged in the insurance business.

About four years ago he moved to Texarkana where his two sons were engaged in business. Shortly after his removal there he underwent an operation from which he never fully recovered. He is survived by his widow, two sons, Will and Ross, and four grandchildren.

The funeral occurred today at Texarkana.

WHITE RIVER STILL RISING SLOWLY AT PUMPING HOUSE

Little Current in the Backwater on The Fields Which Decreases Possibility of Danger.

Reports from Rockford this afternoon said that White River was rising about an inch an hour. It is more than bank full it was stated and the water is running over the low banks. There is little current, it is said, which decreases the possibility of costly damage to the adjoining fields and roads.

Some of the mail carriers on the rural routes had difficulty in getting over all the roads today for in some places the water is more than four feet deep. Muscatatuck River is receding, according to the reports today. Unless there is another hard rain within the next few hours it is not believed that the river will get much higher.

COAL OIL EXPLOSION CAUSES $175 FIRE LOSS

Wash House at Home of Philip Becker, Laurel Street, is Partly Destroyed.

Explosion of a coal oil stove resulted in a fire loss of $175 at the home of Philip Becker, 32 West Laurel street this morning. The stove was in the wash house at the rear of the residence. The structure was partly destroyed before the department got control of the flames.

It is believed that the cool air prevented the stove from generating as usual and when the oil was turned into the burner there was a flame resulting in an explosion of the tank. The loss is placed at about $175 with insurance.

SIR JOHN SIMONS QUILTS PLACE ON THE CABINET

Rumors of Resignation Confirmed This Afternoon by Premier Asquith in Commons.

By United Press. London, January 4.—Premier Asquith this afternoon confirmed the report that Sir John Simon, secretary of state for home affairs has resigned. The announcement was made in the house of commons following today's session of the cabinet on the conscription question. It has been rumored for several days that Sir John had quit the cabinet because of his opposition to compulsory military service.

DISTRICT CONVENTION

Representative of Christian Churches Meet at Brownstown.

A district meeting of the Christian churches of this vicinity was held at Brownstown today. A strong program was arranged and among the speakers were the Rev. Fred R. Davies, of Charlestown, and the Rev. C. W. Cauble, of Indianapolis. The Rev. W. Paul March, of this city, was also in attendance. A large representation of the various churches was present.

Grocery Change.

C. H. Wiethoff, who has been manager of the Cut Rate Grocery since it opened last month, has purchased the store and will continue it as the C. H. Wiethoff Cash Grocery. A delivery wagon has been ordered and as soon as it can be completed, in about three weeks, a delivery system will be established. Mr. Wiethoff is well known in Seymour and will have the good wishes of his friends for his success in the new business. His adv. will appear regularly on page five of this paper.

Directors Elected.

The stockholders of the Co-operative Building and Loan Association held their annual meeting at the office of the Association Monday evening. The reports of the secretary and treasurer for 1915 were read and indicated a very satisfactory year's business. The dividends earned during the year amounted to 7.16 per cent.

Three directors, J. G. Laupus, J. P. Honan and J. H. Andrews were elected to succeed themselves for the coming three years.

J. G. Megel and son, of Tennessee, who have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Niemeyer, went to Indianapolis this morning to visit relatives before returning home.

UNITED STATES MAY CHANGE ATTITUDE

May Modify Position With Regard to The Carrying of Guns on Merchantmen.

CHANGE IN WARFARE METHODS

This and Because Germany Has no Warships at Sea Except Submarines Responsible.

By United Press.

Washington, January 4.—Secretary of State Lansing has informed Ambassador Bernstorff that the United States is considering a slight modification of its position with regard to the carrying of guns on merchantmen.

The change in the naval warfare created by the submarine and the fact that there are no German warships at sea other than the submarines have brought about this change of attitude, he told the ambassador.

It was unofficially stated by a Teutonic diplomatic official in Washington that if an Austrian submarine commander admitted that he sank the Persia, Austria will insist that he had a right to do so as the vessel was armed and Germany, it is said, will back Austria up in this contention. The Austrian charge and the German ambassador conferred at the German embassy today.

THREE HUNDRED FAMILIES FORCED TO MOVE AT PERU

Wabash Overflows and Covers Portion of City Known as South Peru—Light Plant Damaged.

By United Press.

Peru, January 4.—Between 250 and 300 families were forced to move out last night when the Wabash overflowed its banks and inundated the portion of the city known as South Peru. Heavy damage was done to the light plant and part of the city was in darkness. The newspapers were without power.

The general opinion today was that only cold weather prevented Peru from experiencing a worse flood than that of 1913 when eleven lives were lost. The crest of the flood has been reached and waters are receding.

CONFERENCE WITH STONE

White House Statement Admits Without Reservation That Situation is Very Grave.

By United Press.

Washington, January 4.—President Wilson today issued a statement in which he admitted that the present situation between the United States and Austria is grave.

He stated that he is co-operating with Secretary Lansing in an effort to obtain full facts and that as soon as this information is obtained this government will act promptly.

The statement follows: "The president and the secretary of state are taking every means possible to obtain the full facts in this grave matter and will act just as soon as the information is obtained."

The president decided not to call his cabinet together today but conferred with Chairman Stone of the senate foreign relations committee and will confer with Secretary Lansing in an effort to gather all evidence on the Persia sinking.

That the situation is very critical was admitted today at the White House without reservation.

The president and Mrs. Wilson arrived from Hot Springs at 7:45 a. m. today.

Congress reconvened today and was expected to take a prominent part in the international denouement.

BOSTON SURVIVOR TELLS OF SCENES ON PERSIA

American Salesman Slid Into Water when Ship was Hit and was Picked up on Wreckage.

By United Press.

London, January 4.—Charles H. Grant, Boston, Mass. salesman, and the only American survivor of the Persia, today told of pitiful scenes when the liner went down, according to Alexandria dispatches. Grant slid into the water with a life belt and was picked up while clinging to floating wreckage.

"As we pulled away some of the passengers were screaming and others shouting farewells," said Grant. "Those in one boat sang hymns half hysterically."

Grant was in the dining room when the boat was struck. Consul McNeely ordinarily sat with him but was not with him at that time, Grant said. The survivors were distributed among five boats and were picked up seventeen hours after the boat was struck.

BERLIN REGRETS SINKING OF BRITISH LINER PERSIA

Incident Commented on Coming on Heels of Austria's Note Concerning Ancona.

(By Carl W. Ackerman, United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Berlin, January 4.—Regret is expressed almost universally in Berlin over the sinking of the British liner Persia with heavy loss of life, just as heroic efforts were being made to repair the Teutonic-American relations.

The public and newspapers understood that Austria's last note had cleared a way for a complete understanding. No information has reached here as to whether a German or Austrian submarine sank the Persia.

ABLE TO RETURN TO DAILY WORK

G. W. Schisler, of Muncie, Has Not Lost an Hour's Time Since Taking Tanlac.

Muncie, Ind., January 3, 1916—"One bottle of Tanlac has done me more good than all the other medicines I have taken in the last four months," G. W. Schisler, who lives on Rural Route No. 12, near Muncie, said recently.

"I have suffered with kidney trouble for several months. For the last four months it has been particularly severe, and I have had to lose considerable time from my work as a result. I suffered most during the night and early in the morning. My back was so stiff that I could hardly straighten up. My kidneys were irregular. I didn't sleep well and had to get up often. My stomach also was in bad condition. I was subject to spells of dizziness.

"Since I began taking Tanlac I have resumed my work and haven't lost an hour's time. The kidney trouble has been greatly relieved and the stomach trouble benefited. The pains in my back are not so severe, and my kidneys are more regular than they have been for a long time. I am sleeping better and my appetite has improved. In fact, I am better in every way."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, that has proved such a boon to thousands of Indiana people, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, rheumatism, insomnia, defective circulation and the like.

It is now sold exclusively in Seymour at H. H. Carter's Drug Store.

INJURIES PROVE FATAL TO ENGINEER CHARLES GUTH

Employ of B. & O. Southwestern was in Railroad Service for Thirty-four Years.

The following concerning Engineer Charles Guth who was fatally injured in a wreck at Odell, Ill., Friday is from the Washington Democrat.

Injuries received in last Friday afternoon's wreck at Odell, Ill., when B. & O. Southwestern passenger train number 2 ran into an open switch and crashed into two light engines, proved fatal to Charles Guth, the injured engineer. Mr. Guth died at Olney Sunday morning at 9:45 while Mrs. Guth was in this city. She had returned home for some clothing. The body was prepared for burial at Olney and was shipped to this city this afternoon on train number 2 and was taken to the home on West Walnut street.

The body was met at the train by a number of Knights of Columbus, to which order Mr. Guth belonged. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

The untimely death of Mr. Guth brought to an end a railroad career that began thirty-four years ago. He had been running an engine for twenty-five or twenty-six years and his long and efficient service on the Southwestern had gained for him the reputation of being one of the very best and most careful men on the road. He numbered his friends by his acquaintances and all along the line he was highly popular.

Charles Joseph Guth was born in September of 1858 or 1859 at Gallipolis, Ohio, and on October 12, 1893 he married Miss Maggie Holman. They had two children, one of whom died in infancy. The other, Mrs. Charles Hines, of St. Louis, together with the widow, survive. He also leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. H. Kelly and Miss Malign Guth, of Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. Guth came to Washington with his family twenty-two years ago, accepting employment on the B. & O. Southwestern. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus, the Royal Arcanum, the B. of L. E., the Conductor's Protective Association, the Holy Name Society and of St. Mary's church.

Members of the engine crews involved in the wreck were called to Flora, Ill., again this morning and the investigation to determine the responsibility for the accident is being continued. The nature of the evidence being offered is unknown here.

The damaged engines, the 2287, the 2585 and the 1463 arrived at the local shops this morning for repairs. They will be put back in service just as quickly as they are repaired.

G. M. DODGE, CIVIL WAR HERO, DEAD

Later Built Union Pacific Railroad.

PERSONAL FRIEND OF LINCOLN

Wins Title of Major-General For Gallant Services—Preferred Railroad Building to Political Career—Officer in Many Patriotic Organizations.

Council Bluffs, Ia., Jan. 4.—General Grenville M. Dodge, soldier and railroad builder, who died at his home here, will be buried in this city Thursday. The funeral services will be in charge of Colonel Matt A. Kinney of the Iowa National Guard in accordance with General Dodge's wishes, expressed shortly before his death.

Two battalions of Iowa and Nebraska guardsmen will act as escort. General Dodge's three daughters will attend the funeral, but his widow, who is in New York, has announced that she is too ill to make the trip. General Dodge was born in Danvers, Mass., in 1831.

Two notable services to his country assure Major General Grenville Mellen Dodge a place among the history makers of the civil war and reconstruction periods.

As a pioneer in western railroad building he has the Union Pacific railroad, whose line he located and whose construction he superintended, standing today as a monument to his memory.

Some sixty years ago, the then young Dodge, who had moved from New England, where he had studied civil engineering, to Council Bluffs, Ia., entered the employ of the Illinois Central railroad. Abraham Lincoln, who had done legal work for the same company, met the young Yankee. They talked of building a railroad over the Rocky mountains and beyond.

The federal government shortly afterward decided to begin surveying for the proposed line. Dodge jumped at the chance of leading the party.

In the midst of the undertaking the civil war broke out. Obtaining a colonel's commission from his old friend, President Lincoln, he raised the Fourth Iowa Infantry regiment. Within two weeks Colonel Dodge was leading his command against the rebels in northern Missouri. His gallantry soon afterward, at the battle of Pea Ridge, won almost instant promotion to the rank of brigadier general.

He again distinguished himself in the decisive battle of Atlanta campaign, July 22, 1864, when he defeated General Hood's desperate movement to the rear of the army of the Tennessee.

Later, while standing in a trench before Atlanta, Ga., Dodge was shot and severely wounded in the head.

After the fall of Vicksburg he received appreciative recognition from General Grant, being promoted to major general and given command of the Sixteenth army corps.

In addition to his military service and his engineering successes, General Dodge remained up to late in life an active and influential man. He was elected to congress the first year after the war, but he declined re-election in favor of the railway project.

PRAYER CAUSES CONCERN

Minister Finally Concludes Lord Knows Best in Dispensing Blessing.

Gloucester, Mass., Jan. 4.—Many people who attended the inaugural exercises of Mayor Barrett, were much concerned about the prayer offered by the Rev. Levi M. Powers. After mentioning voters, taxpayers, business men, political managers, pro-license citizens, lean people, ministers, newspaper men and lawyers as savable subjects for prayers, Rev. Powers concluded:

"We wish, oh God, that all these people might be blessed, but perhaps we are asking too much, for we know that even you cannot bless them unless they mend their way. It may be that the only thing you can do is to let them go to hell, where they belong; You know best."

Twelve Saloon Men Indicted.

Indianapolis, Jan. 4.—Twelve saloon keepers and two bartenders are charged with violations of the liquor laws in fifteen indictments returned in the final report of the Marion county grand jury. Capias for the arrest of the liquor men were issued in the Marion criminal court and became public when they were sent to the sheriff for service.

Marion, Ind., Jan. 4.—Stooping to tie his shoe strings in the Pennsylvania railroad yards, Homer Morical, thirty, was struck and killed by a cut of cars. John Coxey, brakeman, shouted a warning too late.

EFFICIENCY OF APPRAISERS
DISCUSSED AT TAX MEETING

"Dodgers" Will Shudder if They Hear About New Methods to be Instituted.

By United Press.

Indianapolis, January 4.—Those habitual "tax dodgers" who have been covering up their personal belongings, would shudder if they could attend the meeting of the fifteenth annual conference of state tax commissioners in session here today. Efficiency of tax appraisers will be strengthened in many ways during the course of the sessions, which are being held in the house chamber at the state house.

Governor Ralston today addressed the tax men and in the course of the next three days a number of experts in this line of work will tell what they have accomplished during the past year. Among them will be Fred A. Sims, L. R. Naftzger, County Assessor Jacob F. Lindsey of Noble county and Albert Humke, state inheritance tax investigator.

NEW PROBLEMS BEFORE
INDIANA CLUB WOMEN

Talk of Legislative Council of Indiana Women Disbanding—Meeting Thursday.

Indianapolis, January 4.—Shall the Legislative Council of Indiana Women disband? If not, who shall be the new president? These are questions of greatest importance likely to come before the meeting of that organization at the Claypool Hotel at 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

Instead of the usual strenuous fight for the offices the council seems to be facing the unique position of having its offices go abegging. Miss Vida Newsom of Columbus, the retiring president of the Indiana Federation of Clubs, is being urged by many of her admirers to allow her name to be considered for the presidency of the council, but she has only half promised to consent.

"When the subject was first suggested to me, I refused," said Miss Newsom yesterday. "I am only just beginning to be relieved of the many duties that fall on the president of the Indiana Federation of Clubs, and I felt that I absolutely could not take on new burdens. So many arguments were brought to bear, however, that I am considering the matter, but I can not say definitely that I will consent on Thursday morning."

Mrs. A. D. Moffett of Elwood also has been frequently mentioned for the presidency by many of her friends, and should she consent to become a candidate and be elected she will bring to the office much legislative experience gained not only as an active worker in the council last year, but for several years when she has worked in behalf of library legislation.

Many of the other delegates also are so anxious to bring harmony into the council that they say they will vote for the organization to disband if the affiliated societies can not bring a unanimous feeling of good will to the work.

The council was organized for the purpose of bringing concerted force of all the state organizations to bear on all legislation which concerns women and children, and there seems to be a feeling that if any dissensions creep into the organization it fails of its prime purpose. So strong has been this feeling that none of the affiliated organizations has paid dues for next year and the society could be disbanded without involving any financial tangles.

As the meeting of Thursday morning is a postponed meeting for the purpose of election and of making amendments to the constitution, that is the only business to be brought forth.

Bad Cold Quickly Broken Up.

Mrs. Martha Wilcox, Gowanda, N. Y. writes: "I first used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy about eight years ago. At that time I had a hard cold and coughed most of the time. It proved to be just what I needed. It broke up the cold in a few days, and the cough entirely disappeared. I have told many of my friends of the good I received through using this medicine, and all who have used it speak of it in the highest terms." Obtainable everywhere.

Feel how fine

Ordinary flours seem coarse in texture when compared with the surpassing quality of Valier's Enterprise Flour.

By our special slow process of milling, we preserve, in the flour, the full baking quality of finest wheat, from which this flour is made. Then we sift many times through imported Swiss silk to make its texture as fine as its quality. You'll find that Valier's Enterprise Flour not only makes better baking, but makes more baking per sack.

tal Says His Government Full Reparation If It is in the Persia.

Washington, Jan. 4.—Although admitting that the conducted submarine activities in eastern Mediterranean waters, as evidenced by the reports of the sinking of the British merchant vessel Glengyle and the Japanese liner Kenkon Maru, may make impossible a satisfactory explanation of the destruction of the liner Persia, state department officials are hopeful that out of the situation may spring a new understanding between the United States and the Teutonic allies on the subject of submarine warfare.

In the same quarters it is regarded as more than probable that in the near future the United States government will approach informally the entente powers with a view to getting them to agree henceforth to permit no guns to be mounted on passenger liners.

The purpose of both moves, now under consideration, say responsible officials, is to safeguard the lives of American citizens who may be compelled to take passage on the high seas on merchant ships flying the flag of belligerent nations. If this end is attained, it is said the sinking of the Persia, tragic as it was in the enormous toll of human life, may after all, prove a blessing in disguise.

President Wilson returned to Washington on a special train from Hot Springs, Va., where he has been spending his honeymoon. He has taken charge of the entire situation. Immediately after his arrival he conferred with Secretary Lansing. It is also probable that he will discuss the situation with Chairman Stone, of the senate committee of foreign relations. It is likely also that when congress reconvenes there will be a general airing of views on the floors of both houses and senate.

At the Austrian and German embassies the prediction was confidently made that the sinking of the Persia will not lead to a break. Neither at the embassies, nor at the state department has confirmation been received of the reported sinking of the British freighter Glengyle, nor of the Japanese liner Kenkon Maru. Unless Americans were on board these two vessels, however, the United States can have no interests in their fate, officials explained.

Baron Zwiedinck, charge d'affaires of the Austrian embassy, called on Secretary Lansing. According to the state department he called merely to ask for further details that might have been received by the state department, regarding the attack on the Persia. From other sources, however, it was learned that the charge expressed confidence that if it is shown that the liner was sunk without warning by an Austrian submarine, the Austrian government will not hesitate a moment to disavow the act, punish the commander and make reparation. The charge is said to have assured the secretary that it is the purpose of his government in every way to live up to the rules of international law as endorsed in Austria's reply to the American note on the sinking of the Ancona.

CHOKES TO DEATH ON BUTTON

Collar Button Lodges in Boy's Windpipe, Causing Him to Die.

Vincennes, Ind., Jan. 4.—Robert Pennington, age eleven, was choked to death by a collar button, which he placed in his mouth.

The boy, who is a son of Mrs. Anna Pennington of Edwardsport, was playing in the street with Windell Atkinson and Earl Essinger. When he picked up the collar button and put it in his mouth the two boys told him it was dangerous thing to do. The Pennington boy started to run. After he had gone half a block he fell to the ground dying.

The boy was carried into the Reeve hardware store, but before a physician could arrive he had choked to death, as the button had lodged in his windpipe.

INCOME TAX FORMS DISTRIBUTED HERE

Corporations, Firms and Individuals Coming Under Law Must File Before March 1.

HEAVY PENALTY FOR DELAY

Blanks Provide for Detailed Summary of Business—Must Show Gross Income and Expenses.

Local firms, corporations and individuals have received from the treasury department at Washington instructions and blank forms for preparing the income tax returns which must be filed by March 1. The forms are sent out in advance so that ample time will be given to fill them out in accordance with law.

The forms are quite lengthy and are substantially the same as were sent out last year. They provide for a detailed summary of the business of corporations, including the income from the several sources, taxes paid, general expenses and losses sustained, if any, during the past year. Corporations refusing or neglecting to file the return by March 1 are liable to a penalty of any amount not exceeding $10,000. It is also provided that an additional penalty of fifty per cent. may be charged for neglect to file the return and a penalty of one hundred per cent. in case of a fraudulent return. The collector is authorized to allow an extension of time of thirty days after March 1 in case of sickness, but proper affidavits must be filed to show that the return could not be made by that time and that the extension of time is unavoidable upon the part of the officers of the corporation.

Persons coming under the income law are cautioned to give the principal business in which expenses claimed were incurred. It is required that the total amount expended in repairs of buildings be given if such item is claimed as a necessary expense. Only such interest is deductible as was actually paid by the individual on his own account during the year for which the return is made. Another important clause reads: "Only such taxes as were actually paid during the year for which return is made are deductible. Inheritance taxes and taxes paid for local benefits are not deductible. Taxes paid by a bank on behalf of the stockholder constitute an allowable deduction to the taxpayer, but if subject to a supertax, the stock holder must enter a like amount—it being held that such payments by the bank are equivalent to an extra dividend."

It is further required that the return must show all "bad debts" in detail. No depreciation is allowed for decrease in value of land; the depreciation allowed relates only to wear and tear of buildings, equipment, etc., growing out of the business. The decrease in stock and bonds does not constitute an allowable deduction as depreciation or otherwise.

The combined income of husband and wife is subject only to normal tax. The supertax is taken only against the individual income of the taxpayer. Where the husband and wife each have an income in excess of $20,00 each should make a separate return.

A complicated form is provided for corporations. Blanks are left showing the gross income and in another column spaces are left for deductions which may be made under the law. The return by corporations must be signed by the president and treasurer. The form provides that the amount of the sales during the year, stock on hands, purchases during the year and stock at beginning of fiscal year shall be stated.

The blank provides that corporations desiring to make returns of the annual net income on the basis of a fiscal year other than the calendar year, must not less than thirty days prior to March 1, file with the collector a notice in writing designating the last day of some month as the close of such fiscal year. A return for that portion of the calendar year preceding the first full fiscal year established must be filed on or before March 1 of the next calendar year, and the return for the fiscal year (twelve months) must be filed on or before the last day of the sixty-day period next following the closing date of the fiscal year.

GEORGE R. SCHRIER IN RACE FOR COMMISSIONER

Local Stock Buyer Seeks Democratic Nomination from the Second District.

Elsewhere in this issue appears the announcement of George R. Schrier, of this city, as a candidate for the nomination for county commissioner from the second district subject to the Democratic primaries. Mr. Schrier is well known in this county, especially in this district, and he believes that because of his wide acquaintance he will be successful. For a number of years he has been engaged in stock buying and had proved himself to be a practical business man. He says he thinks that the people's business ought to be conducted along the same business lines and declares himself in favor of businesslike methods in county work.

Mr. Schrier was born and reared in Washington county, but after his marriage he moved across the River into Brownstown township and lived there until sixteen years ago when he came to Seymour and was employed by Stanfield & Carlson in the hardware and timber business. For years he bought timber for that concern and traveled in all parts of the county. Six years ago he took up stock buying and has successfully engaged in that activity since.

"The taxpayers are entitled to full value for every dollar of public funds that is expended," said Mr. Schrier. "The same rules of careful business management that apply in private business. The people of the county pay taxes for the general advancement and upbuilding of their community and expect to see results. If I am nominated and elected it will be my earnest desire to serve the public trust to the best of my ability and in accordance with the wishes of the public. Although the campaign has not advanced far I have received the most favorable encouragement and have every reason to believe that I will be successful."

BALKAN SOLDIERS FACE HARD WINTER

Cold Months Impose Many Difficulties Because of Few Roads and Continuous Rain.

DANGER OF GAS GANGRENE

Inadequate Medical Attention is Resulting in Death of Many Wounded Men.

(By William G. Shepherd, United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Monastir, Serbia, December 24. (By Mail).—Balkan soldiers suffer more than those of any other nation. How the Bulgarians, the newcomers, will conduct their medical corps, remains to be seen. Winter imposes almost insurmountable difficulties on an army in the Balkans owing to the few roads and the almost incessant mud and rain. The Germans and the Austrians, with their automobile ambulances, have dodged the hardest and worst parts of Serbia. The German line extends down into Serbia only fifty miles and the Germans seem satisfied with that.

There is little chance of their coming further. The Austrian line reaches only slightly deeper into the little ally country. The Austrians and the Germans appear to have the single intention of connecting with the Bulgarians, if possible, in the northeastern tip of Serbia and avoiding the Bad Lands. But the Bulgarians will have not such easy going. Their wounded and sick must be carried on springless wagons drawn, oftentimes, by oxen which plod through the knee deep mud in a slow and dismal procession.

Some of the difficulties that will be faced by the Bulgarians may be measured by what I have seen along the roads near Monastir and in the hospitals here. Most of the Serbian wounded suffer from gas gangrene, owing to the lack of attention imposed by the long, slow cart journeys. Small wounds that would have meant only a week in the hospital if prompt medical attention could have been given, are killing men with pain or poison.

American, as well as Serbian doctors, are helpless against gas gangrene. Quinine is being tried in Serbia now and wounded men are being given doses almost unbelievably large and potent and the doctors fancy that the gas gangrene victims are helped slightly by the new treatment.

Explosive bullets are another cause of horrible suffering in the Balkan fighting. Not content with sending a bullet through an enemy, the Balkan battlers often use bullets that explode. Let one of these bullets strike a bone and it creates in the flesh all the havoc of a miniature Jack Johnson shell, actually shredding and spattering flesh in all directions from the person of the unhappy target. All of a leg or arm below the point where an explosive bullet has struck, the bone may as well be amputated, for the bone will be splintered, the flesh blown away and gas gangrene imminent. In the hospital here is a farmer boy who was hit in the right arm and leg by a bullet which came from above him.

The bullet exploded in the leg, shattering it, and the leg was taken off by the doctors. Gas gangrene set in in the arm and that too was amputated. The young man thereby gains the doubtful distinction of having lost a leg and an arm by one small bullet. The world is likely to hear little this winter of what is going on in Serbia because of the fog of war which covers actual fighting grounds obscures much that the world ought to know. But the Servians will be suffering incredibly, as will also the invaders who enter the heart of the country.

The Gist of It.

"Last December I had a very severe cold and was nearly down sick in bed. I bought two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it was only a very few days until I was completely restored to health," writes O. J. Metcalf, Weatherby, Mo. If you would know the value of this remedy, ask any one who has used it. Obtainable everywhere.

Later Secret Orders.

The fact that the Knights of the Golden Circle were no more after 1863, does not mean that such organizations ceased to exist. On the other hand, they were succeeded by other orders such as the "Order of American Knights," and the "Sons of Liberty," whose activities were much more far reaching and dangerous. The members of the "Castles" of the Circle were in large number found in the later associations.

ROAD SUPERINTENDENT.

From the expressions that have been freely uttered concerning the appointment of Mr. Frank Hess, of Hamilton township, as superintendent of county highways it is quite obvious that the selection of the commissioners meets with general approval. The appointment of Mr. Hess is commended by members of all parties and there is a feeling of certainty that he will not permit politics to interfere with improvement and repair of the county thoroughfares.

Mr. Hess goes into the office with a practical knowledge of road building. He has had several years of experience in this work and the excellent condition of the highways in Hamilton township are evidence of his capability. There is a general assurance that the thousands of dollars spent annually on Jackson county highways will be used judiciously and economically. What his program will be is not known. He has not definitely outlined his plans, but there is a general feeling that they will be the right ones.

Mr. Hess takes over the management of the county roads as a successor to Henry Price. There is no question but that they are in much better condition now than they were two years ago when Mr. Price was appointed as highway superintendent. The retiring superintendent has given all of his time to the work. When he was not out in the various districts he was compiling his report at his office, and incidentally there is considerable bookkeeping in connection with the position.

Under Mr. Price's administration many of the highways, especially the main traveled roads, have been practically rebuilt and almost all of them have been treated with a surface of new gravel. The department now owns several times as much equipment as it did two years ago. The improved conditions of the highways are due to the efforts of the retiring superintendent and to him much credit is due for the organization of the work.

But the county highways are not yet in perfect condition—they may never be—and there is much to be done. Mr. Hess will find plenty of work that must be done and if he succeeds in his department as the public expects him to do there is every reason to believe that there will be a marked improvement in the condition of many of the public highways before his term of office has expired.

MORE COMPLICATIONS.

Washington dispatches today indicate that the international situation is again grave. It seems that about the time one complication is cleared up another arises so that our foreign relations are in an unsettled state. The public is quick to draw conclusions but it is only right and fair that final decision be withheld until all the details of each incident are known. The national policy of any country involves many points with which the average citizen is unfamiliar. Interpretation of treaties enter largely into these controversies. In drawing conclusions concerning these sections the United States has always been fair and in many cases most liberal. America is trying to get at peace. American people do not want to be plunged into a period of conflict and bloodshed, but there is a limit to patience and liberality. But above all the administration has shown a desire to deal with other countries with deliberation and this is commendable as it is snap judgment that prevents arbitration of many questions that do not call for force of arms.

B. & O. Detective Dead.

Robert Meridith, of Washington, for many years a detective in the employ of the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern Railroad, died suddenly at Washington Monday night, of apoplexy. new superintendent will be the appointment of assistants in the various districts. Under the law each county is divided into districts and one assistant named in each is held responsible for the work done there. It will likely be several weeks before Mr. Hess makes his appointments. It is important that men be named who will carry out the orders of their superior and who are interested in better roads in Jackson county.

It was stated today that it had been suggested that Mr. Hess retain Mr. Price as an assistant to him. Whether or not this arrangement would be satisfactory to either of them is not known.

WOULD BUILD WATER FRONT.

Engineer Has Plan to Fill Up East River at New York.

One of the most startling projects ever conceived for the relief of the harbor congestion in New York has been proposed by one of New York's most prominent consulting engineers, Dr. T. Kennard Thomson. In the January Popular Science Monthly appears a vivid description by Dr. Thomson of the steps he hopes to take in order to make his plan a reality.

In brief, he plans to reclaim fifty square miles of land from New York Bay, to add a hundred miles of new water front for docks, to fill in the East river and to prepare New York for a population of 20,000,000. This work is to be done by building cofferdams, and after pumping out the water, laying the subway tubes, gas, electric and telephone conduits he will fill in the inclosed space. This, he claims, will be a very inexpensive method of construction since it would not entail the costly tunneling to build the subway after the construction had been completed. Dr. Thomson believes that through taxes and additional business which would come to New York this project, while its original cost would be greater than that of the Panama canal, would surely and quickly pay for itself.

TWO PERISHED IN AIR BATTLE.

British and German Aeroplanes Fought Until Both Aeroplanes Fell.

Details of a recent air battle between a British and a German aviator, which ended in the destruction of both machines and the death of their occupants, is printed by the Amsterdam Telegraaf. The British aeroplane, it is stated, was flying over the district of Lichtervelde, south of Bruges, Belgium, and dropped several bombs, one of which hit an ammunition depot, causing a heavy explosion. On starting back the aviator found his path intercepted by a German air man. A long and violent battle ensued, in which both aeroplanes were disabled and crashed to earth, killing the occupants.

Says Pheasants Kill Quails.

Game wardens of central Illinois have filed charges against the English ring necked pheasants which were imported at enormous expense by the state game department and distributed in most of the counties. It is asserted that the pheasants kill the young quails and destroy the nests of the grown birds before the eggs are hatched.

$1,000,000 GIVEN TO AID THE JEWS

Great Fund Raised at Meeting Held In New York.

$100,000 EACH FROM FOUR Women Tear Jewels From Their Fingers and Ears While Others Give Their Costly Furs—Huge Audience Moved to Tears by Touching Plea of Speaker.

One of the most intensely dramatic scenes ever enacted in New York occurred at a meeting of the American Jewish relief committee at Carnegie hall. Within the short space of half an hour the sum of about $1,000,000 was collected to alleviate the suffering of war stricken Jews. Hysterical women and weeping men, after contributing their last cent, threw their jewelry on the stage. Four anonymous donations of $100,000 each were announced from among the audience. Two others of $50,000 were announced and scores of lesser donations poured in. Four huge piles of envelopes filled with checks and bills occupied the front of the stage. There were two large wicker baskets filled to the top with rings, watches, fobs and other jewelry. Four Give $100,000 Each. The Guggenheim family, Jacob H. Schiff, Nathan Straus and Julius Rosenwald, it was rumored among the audience, gave the four checks for $100,000 each. The donors were announced simply as anonymous from the stage. The remarkable contribution came after an appeal made by Dr. J. L. Magnes. He is connected with the treasurer's office of the relief committee. He spoke for half an hour. There were 3,500 persons in the hall. Another 3,000 clamored for admission on the outside. Pictures Sufferings of Jews. Dr. Magnes drew a vivid picture of the suffering among the Jews in the war theaters of Europe. With remarkable feeling and sympathy he transported the audience to another land—until every person actually visualized the terrible specter which follows in the wake of the war god. Women began to sob. Men stood up and cried out in anguish. For a time the noise of weeping was so loud that the voice of the speaker was drowned. And then, in eloquent words, Dr. Magnes told of the wonderful charity which similar appeals had brought forth in other cities. There was a catch in his voice as he asked his audience to come forth and show similar spirit. Before the ushers could pass up the aisles with baskets men, women and children surged toward the stage. Some dropped on their knees facing the huge rostrum. Richly clad women knelt shoulder to shoulder with pushcart peddlers. Caste and distinction were forgotten. The stoutest hearts were moved. Men fought to reach the stage so that they could empty their pockets. Yellow backed currency, silver and copper money covered the stage within a few minutes to the depth of three inches. And amid it all Dr. Magnes continued his appeal. He did not lose the grip which he had on his audience for one second. He worked them up into a veritable frenzy. Woman Gives Lavalliere. A woman staggered toward the stage. Her hair had fallen over her shoulders, and tears were coursing down her cheeks. She wore a Fifth avenue modiste's gown and expensive furs. But she was practically unnoticed in the dramatic scene which was being enacted. Pushing aside women who were on their knees, she tore a diamond lavalliere from her neck and passed it to Dr. Magnes. Other women threw their furs on the stage. Still others tore their rings from their fingers and their jewels from their ears. All clad working girls gave up trinkets which probably represented weeks of saving. And even then they cried because they could not give more. One man pushed his way through the mob and passed up a coin to one of the men on the stage. Dr. Magnes later announced that this man had given him 10 cents. This, he said, represented his car fare—all the money he had. Still another man—dirty and bedraggled—passed up what was later said to be a five ruble note. He had just come from a province of Kovno. Five weeks ago he witnessed indescribable massacres among the Jews. The printing on the five ruble note he passed up was almost obliterated with blood. He escaped from the massacre unscathed. After announcing the four donations Dr. Magnes said that one of $15,000 had just been received from Brith Abraham, through Judge Leon Sanders. Then came one of $10,000 from Jacob Wertheim. These donations were followed in rapid succession by two of $10,000 each, from Samuel Untermyer and Louis Marshall. Justice Irving Lehman gave $5,000, and $1,000 each was received from John Simon, Mr. and Mrs. Israel Unterberg and Louis L. Firuski.

2 DEAD; 10 MISSING WHEN SHIP BLOWS UP

Cause of Explosion on Aztec Is Not Known. New York, Jan. 4.—The Norwegian steamship Aztec, an oil burning freighter, which recently carried a cargo of gasoline to France and was soon to depart with another load, blew up in her slip in the yard of the Robins Drydock company at the foot of Dwight street, South Brooklyn. Two men are known to have been killed, ten are missing, three of the seven who were taken to the Holy Family hospital, are likely to die. Although nobody has been found who knows just what caused the explosion, which spouted workmen and sailors into the air in flaming oil, hatch covers and fragments of steel plates, there is no suspicion that it was the work of the war plotters. It is supposed that a spark touched off gaseous vapor that was pocketed between the vessel's tanks, or in the bilges. But as to where the ship spark came from, there is as yet no indication. The dead: James Doherty, Brooklyn, foreman of the workmen overhauling the ship; Ole Jacobsen, Norway, fireman of the Aztec. The missing Robins company employees: J. Collins, H. Sherman, C. Swanson, C. Nelson; crew of the Aztec: Henry Krug, third engineer, J. Schiebler, fourth engineer, O. Anderson donkey engineer; Raymond Alvarez and D. Souchy, fireman. The three injured men whose burns and other hurts are likely to prove fatal are Matthew Maroney, rigger for the Robins company; Joseph Angione, machinist helper, Brooklyn; Charles Rasmussen, cook. Four others who were at the hospital were able to go home.

HORSE MEAT FOR NEW YORK

Carcass Put in Cold Storage Awaiting Dealer's License. New York, Jan. 4.—The carcass of a horse, sent to a dealer in this city to be used as food had to be put in cold storage because the dealer's license to place the flesh on the market had not been obtained. The horse was shipped by express from Dundee, N. Y. Health Commissioner Emerson said that there was no objection by the department to the meat being sold as soon as the dealer had obtained his license. The health department withheld the man's name. Another application has been made recently for a license to sell horse meat in the city.

HOLD TWO MEN ON SUSPICION

South Bend Police Continue Efforts to Solve Brewery Murders. South Bend, Ind., Jan. 4.—Although the police have refused to make any public statement, it became known here that two men are being held on suspicion in connection with the shooting and killing of Henry A. Muesel, office manager of the Muesel Brewing company, and Frank Schrobot, a driver for the brewery. John Heski, age twenty-three, is one of the men held. He has a police record. The name of the other prisoner has not been learned. The authorities refuse to say what, if any, evidence they have against them. Wilson Returns to Washington. RUSS ATTACK IN FULL SWING

Two Huge Armies Grapple In Galicia.

ROUMANIA'S AID THE PRIZE

Czar's Troops Apparently Making Slow But Steady Gains Over the Teutons—Fighting Began Nearly a Week Ago, Remains Undecided. London, Jan. 4.—The Galician crown land, Bukovina, the province of Volhynia, and the western part of Bessarabia, constitute the battle ground of violent fighting between two huge armies, Russian and Austro-German, which began nearly a week ago and is still in full swing, with the Russians the attackers and with Roumania's eventual aid, the prize courted by either side. In the Bukovina the battle centers upon Czernowitz, the capital. Here the Russians stormed a height and are apparently making slow but steady headway. In Volhynia, a five-day battle has been going on in the Stry and on the Bug, northward of Czernowitz, north of Rafailowka and to the Pripiet marshes. Czarnowitz, on the Kovel-Sarny sector, has been for months bitterly contested, but never since the Galician battle in the earlier stages of the war, has the fighting for this point been so bitter and so protracted as it is in this latest struggle, still undecided. Only by wresting from the Teutons the two Volhynian fortresses, Duden and Latzk, will the Russians be able to undertake a new campaign against eastern Galicia on a larger scale. Rovano, the third stronghold, is in their hands. The Russian offensive in Volhynia, therefore is aimed to getting the Kovel-Sarny sector of the Brest-Litovsk-Kieff railroad, thus cutting off the essential Teuton supply line and then driving southward in a flanking movement against Lutsk and Duden. On the east Galician front which, with the Bessarabian sector stretches close to the Roumanian border, the battle rages chiefly southward of Parnopol, on the middle and upper Styrpa, the bridgehead of Burkonow and further beyond Czernowitz to Buzac. Here the Russians are endeavoring to make headway toward Lemberg and capture that city. Czarnowitz is considered by military experts the key to the Carpathians. Pro-alled elements in Roumania have replied to the entente representations, urging Roumanian intervention that the time for Roumania to join the allies had passed with the Teuton offensive, which a year ago drove the Russians out of the Carpathian mountain passes and out of the greater part of Galicia. Roumania has pointed to the menace to her border presented by the presence of large Teuton forces. The Russians are now believed to be striving for a new great Galician drive which would necessitate the withdrawal of this Teuton menace, which would win Roumania to the allies. It was to this end that the Russian army for months held in readiness in Bessarabia for a drive at Bulgaria through Roumanian territory was sent to Galicia and Volhynia. This army is believed to be well equipped with ammunition, principally from Japan.

TAKEN ON BOARD WARSHIP

Suspected Subjects of Hostile Nations Arrested by Allies. Paris, Jan. 4.—A Havas dispatch from Athens says that word has been received from Salonica that all suspected subjects of nations at war with the entente allies are being arrested and taken on board a warship after being interrogated. Salonica merchants have appealed to the Greek government to facilitate the transportation of supplies necessary for the population, the advices add, the scarcity of provisions becoming more noticeable every day.

ARRESTS SUCCESSOR'S AID

Sheriff Harmon's Last Official Act Is to Arrest Deputy. Washington, Ind., Jan. 4.—The last official act of George W. Harmon, the outgoing county sheriff here, was to arrest William Gibson, deputy under Christopher D. Guthrie, the new sheriff, who took his office on Jan. 1. Harmon arrested Gibson on a grand jury indictment which charges him with assault and battery on his wife. It is alleged he struck her with a revolver, inflicting a severe gash on her head. Gibson gave bond for his appearance at the next term of court. Deadly Typhus in Mexico. New York, Jan. 4.—Typhus, in fully as serious proportions as in Serbia, is prevalent in Mexico City and unless checked will go down as one of the great plagues of history. This is the statement made by a New York business man just returned from that city. New President of Chicago Board. Chicago, Jan. 4.—Joseph P. Griffin was elected president of the Chicago board of trade, defeating James A. Patten by a vote of approximately two to one. Mr. Griffin last year was vice-president of the board.

CALIFORNIA SWEEP BY SEVERE STORM

Many Rescued From Their Homes In Boats. San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 4.—Transcontinental traffic from the Pacific coast was reported moving steadily, despite a storm which swept from the Pacific coast. The coast guard cutter Snohomish, which lost her way and ran ashore in a Puget Sound snowstorm, floated off at his tide and proceeded undamaged. The western portal of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad's cascade tunnel showed ninety-five inches of snow, with 112 inches on the eastern slope. Eight inches covered the ground in Seattle. Twenty-five persons in Oakland, Cal., were taken from their homes in boats. Lake Merritt, in the residence district, overflowed. A tunnel, by which an electric suburban system reaches the pier, was flooded and thousands of commuters were late to work in San Francisco. The city schools were closed. Mud slides blocked the tracks of the Western Pacific railroad in several places and trains were hours late. Wire service suffered everywhere. In the Sacramento valley part of the town of Chico, including the plant of the Diamond Match company, was flooded by a cloudburst and the schools in Sacramento were closed.

HEAVY GRIPPE TOLL IN N. Y.

272 Deaths From Pneumonia In One Week, Record. New York, Jan. 4.—After comparing last year's figures with statistics compiled last week the health department has renewed its warning against gripe. The figures show that 500 persons last week died of gripe and pneumonia, while last year, in the corresponding week, only three hundred deaths were recorded. Last year during the corresponding week, five died from influenza and last week seventy-four lost their lives from this cause. Pneumonia claimed 140 victims during the last week of 1914, while last week 272 died. There were fifteen times as many cases of gripe last week as in the last week of 1914. The health department states that 2,000 new cases of gripe and pneumonia were found in the city last week.

GO HUNTING FOR GHOST

Men and Boys at Gratzville Arm Themselves and Search Woods. Evansville, Ind., Jan. 4.—About fifty men and boys living in the vicinity of Gratzville, six miles west of here, went in search of "ghosts" supposed to be in the wood near the village for the last week. Persons reported seeing shadowy figures and mysterious lights flitting through the woods at night, and the women and children had become so frightened that they refused to leave their homes at night. The crowd was armed with pistols, shotguns and clubs. They made a thorough search of the woods, but no ghost was found. Gripe at Evansville. Evansville, Ind., Jan. 4.—Doctors estimate that 5 per cent of Evansville's 97,000 persons are victims of gripe. Doctors, they say, are affected more than any other profession. University For Hoboes. Chicago, Jan. 4.—James Eads How, millionaire "hobo king," announced he will found a university for hoboes in Chicago. Medicine, eugenics and theology will be the main courses. Crawfordsville, Ind., Jan. 4.—Because of the gripe epidemic here Superintendent L. N. Hines postponed the opening of the city schools until Jan. 10.

NERVOUSNESS AS BLESSING.

Carnegie Professor Says It Quickens Intellectual Pursuit.

A one armed paperhanger with the hives, whatever the passing discomfort of his position may be, is really in a fair way to obtain educational advancement. At least he's nervous, and, according to figures compiled by Dr. Karl T. Waugh of Beloit (Wis.) college, it is the nervous man who eventually proves an intellectual wonder. The more nervous he is the quicker his advancement over the tack strewn macadam of learning. It took Dr. Waugh three years to complete his work establishing who's who in the classroom, and he is thoroughly convinced that nervousness is a collegiate blessing and that quick thinking is what puts a fair intellect at the top of the general class standing. That collegiate training is a tremendous element in the chance of success in life is indicated by a chart prepared by Dr. Waugh.

HOW AMERICAN PRINCESS ESCAPED FROM AUSTRIANS.

Former Mrs. Huger Pratt Had Hard Time Leaving Servia.

Princess Alexis Karageorgievitch, formerly Mrs. Huger Pratt of New York, arrived in Rome the other day after an adventurous journey on horseback across Albania. She was still much fatigued from her trip. The prince is a cousin of King Peter of Servia and was an exile from his country, living in Paris until last spring, when, with the princess, he went to Servia. The princess says that she left Nish shortly before the Austro-German occupation of the Servian wartime capital. She said that she had been compelled to ride hard day and night since, pursued by the enemy and at imminent risk of capture. The party originally had forty horses, but thirty-four of them died en route, and luggage and provisions were abandoned. On her arrival at Tirana, Albania, the princess was welcomed by Essad Pasha, provisional president of Albania, who furnished an escort for the party to Montenegro, where they were the guests of King Nicholas at Cetinje. The princess, accompanied by her husband, crossed the Adriatic on an Italian cruiser and was landed at Rapallo. Princess Karageorgievitch says that the Servians are dying of hunger and that their need of relief is most urgent. Their sufferings in Albania, she says, baffle all description. The Terrors of Frankness. "There is no worse vice than frankness," said a playwright. "How should I feel, for example, if I asked you for your opinion of my plays and you answered me frankly, quite frankly? Why, I should feel like the poor lady at the afternoon tea who said to her hostess' little daughter: "Your eyes are such a heavenly blue. And what color are my eyes, darling?" "The child's high treble traveled easily to the farthest corner of the quiet room as she replied, looking earnestly up into her questioner's face: "Dwab middles, yellow whites and wed wims!"—Exchange. Contradictory. Patient—I get lumbago awfully bad, doctor. Do you think you can do anything for me? Doctor—Well, I ought to know something about it. I've been a martyr to it all my life.

EVERY MAN SHOULD RECOGNIZE HIMSELF AS A FACTOR IN HIS HOME TOWN AND BECOME A SOLDIER OF THE COMMON GOOD. WHY NOT? WE ARE MUTUALLY DEPENDENT, EVERY ONE OF US, FROM THE SUNRISE TO THE SUNSET OF LIFE, FOR NO MAN LIVES TO OR FOR HIMSELF ALONE. THE UTTERLY SELFISH MAN IS A MISFIT IN THE SCHEME OF HUMAN EXISTENCE, IS A LIBEL UPON A BENEFICENT PROVIDENCE.

These golden words of truth are quoted from a booklet booming a town that believes in itself and is going forward with rapid strides because its people work together for the common good. Its population increased nearly 100 per cent during the past ten years, while another town similarly situated, only twenty-five miles away, has increased only about 1 per cent in thirty years. Why the difference? The other town is cut up into cliques and factions. Some sets won't trade or neighbor with other sets. The result is that thousands of dollars every month are sent out of that town for mail order purchases, whereas in the town first mentioned, where the people stick together, it has been estimated that the home merchants get about 98 per cent of the trade. "We are mutually dependent, every one of us," remember that, and "become a soldier of the common good." Patronize home industries. Trade at home. Don't be selfish and a libel.

James Couzens said in the course of a conversation in Chicago:

Addressing a big audience on the subject of free trade, this gentleman, his clenched fists raised aloft, shouted:

"I will shed the very last drop of my blood in defense of free trade, as I did over thirty years ago in defense of the Irish church!"

SCENES OF HORROR PRECEDED SINKING

British Liner Persia, Hit by Submarine, Turns Turtle Before All Passengers Leave.

HOPE GIVEN UP FOR M'NEELEY

Owners of Glengyle, Sunk Sunday, Said There were not More than Five Passengers Aboard.

By United Press.

London, January 4.—Scenes of horror preceded the sinking of the Persia in the Mediterranean, according to dispatches from Alexandria today.

The survivors said that while the life boats were being filled and before all had cleared the decks the big ship turned turtle. The steamer dipped shortly to port sending men, women and children slipping down her deck into the water. They said that before the eyes of the survivors in the last boats the ship rolled over while perhaps a score of persons were still clinging to her decks.

Only eighteen of the eighty first class passengers were saved, a Cairo dispatch reported today.

The admiralty has given up hope of finding United States Consul McNeely alive, although eleven other survivors, including Lord Montague, have been landed at Malta. The estimates of the dead still range from 250 to 300.

Owners of the Glengyle which was sunk Sunday in the Mediterranean, said she carried not more than five passengers all of whom were saved. The nationality of the passengers is not known.

SUPREME COURT ADJOURNS

Funeral of Late Justice Lamar Will Be Held Wednesday.

Washington, Jan. 4.—The supreme court met at noon and after an announcement by the chief justice of the death of Justice Lamar, court adjourned until Thursday noon. The adjournment will carry the next sitting of the court over until after the funeral of Justice Lamar. No motions were entertained or other business transacted. Motions will be heard Thursday. Opinions will go over until next Monday.

Following the announcement by the chief justice of the death of Justice Lamar, the court adjourned.

The funeral ceremonies will take place at his home in Augusta, Ga., on Wednesday next. Mr. Justice Vandevanter, Mr. Justice Pitney and Mr. Justice McReynolds will, as a committee appointed by the court, attend the funeral as its representatives.

WALSH GETS HIS JOB BACK

Is Elected Vigo County Sealer Upon Return From Prison.

Terre Haute, Ind., Jan. 4.—Maurice Walsh, who returned from Leavenworth the day before Christmas, has been elected county sealer of weights and measures, a position he resigned after his conviction in the federal court in Indianapolis last spring for the part he was charged with having played in the election frauds of November, 1914. He succeeded Louis Katzenbach, former chief deputy sheriff under Dennis Shea.

The board also elected Arthur T. Jones, former county commissioner, to the position of county superintendent of roads, to succeed Ransom B. Phillips, who was a candidate for reelection.

The old board of mine examiners, Joseph Cottrell and Michael O'Rourke, Democrats, and George H. Richards, Republican, was re-elected.

Fleas.

Pulex irritans, which, by the way, is Latin and means the flea that pesters humans, can jump, according to one Mitzmain, a horizontal distance of thirteen inches and a vertical space of eight inches. Now, on the other hand, that puny brat, the Indian rat flea, and we have the word of the Indian plague commission for it, can broad jump only a plndling five inches and kicks the bar off the uprights if sent at a high mark of more than three inches and an eighth.

Old Coins For New.

Old Spanish and French coins to the value of $1,250,000 have arrived at the United States mint in Philadelphia to be transformed into currency money for the republic of Cuba. The coins were packed in twenty-two kegs and came from Cuba by express. Some of the coins are said to be more than 100 years old and to be of considerable value to numismatists.
